ART IN ADVERTISING.

How a Canton Man, Who Was Prolific in Ideas, Introduced His Wares.

Not everyone is up in the art of advertsing, but here is a Canton man who knows his business. The Rochester N Y., Herald of recent date says:

The ticker through which a record of the stock market is received had just been put in position in the rotunds of the hotel. But before business could begin Saturday evening was largely attended and the anxious speculators could be al lowed to get a glimpse of the market the apparatus must be tested. So the operator began testing the machine.

"Hello, Livingston hotel, testing," was the first thing to be printed on the ribbon Assignment of Frank Piero, Canton; which began to drop from the ticker to petition to sell real estate. On their the baske prepared to receive it. Having the market called A. B. C. manufactured own motion, First National Bank, Isaac annonced that he was testing the by the famous Canton, O., soap firm. It is evening in district No. 8. The first half of the session was devoted to talks in the subject of "Spelling" by John Seneftsh and "Water" by Prof. J. H. Braucher, altion to sell real estate. On his own Harter & Sons and George D. Harter machine, the operator began to dash off sold by one James H. Sperry, of Canton. tion to sell real estate. On his own C. He had no particular motive in he saw a chance to get some free adusing A, B, C, other than that he could vertising. He therefore printed the test the machine with A, B, C, as well word "soap" after the A, B, C, and ship; John Sheard granted leave to as anything else. So he kept jotting made the ribbon read, "Hello, Livingston answer instanter in proceedings of land. down A, B, C's until he was satisfied the botel, testing A, B, C, soap." After James Klingel, one of our oldest resi- Estate of W. C. Grant, Bethlehem town- ticker was working all right. This, then, ship; to their own motion the Geo. D was the first record on the ribbon,
